Final Programme

The modern Dresden Fair and the historical Stock Market Dresden: congress venue of the 16th Dresden Symposium on Autoantibodies.

WELCOME

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the Organizing Committee, it is a great pleasure to welcome you to our 16th Dresden Symposium on Autoantibodies. The symposium is organized by the Society for the Advancement of Immunodiagnosis (www.gfid-ev.de) in cooperation with the Medical Faculty of the Technical University Dresden and the Section Immunodiagnosis of the German Society for Clinical Chemistry and Laboratory Medicine (www.dgkl.de). The goal of the symposium is to provide an opportunity to update participants on clinical and scientific knowledge, as well as to facilitate networking with members of the medical and scientific community worldwide. Since the 3rd Dresden Symposium on Autoantibodies (1996), numerous aspects of the pathogenetic and diagnostic relevance of autoantibodies were presented and discussed. The main topics dealt especially with the role of autoantigens and autoantibodies in the pathogenesis of autoimmune diseases; the impact of genomics, ribonomics, proteomics on autoantigen and autoantibody research; animal models and human genetics in the research on the induction and pathogenicity of autoantibodies; the relevance of autoantibodies in the prediction of autoimmune diseases; infections, tumors and autoimmunity; immunodeficiency, infection and autoimmune diseases; precision medicine in the care of autoimmune disease; and autoimmunity in the SARS-CoV-2 era. The current symposium entitled "Achievements and Challenges in Research, Diagnostics and Therapy of Autoimmune Diseases" includes a wide range of topics with special focus on rheumatoid arthritis, ANA associated rheumatic diseases, autoimmune neurological and liver diseases and highlights the role of autoantibodies in the prediction and classification of autoimmune diseases. As with all previous symposia, new pathologically or diagnostically relevant autoantibodies will be presented as well as methodical aspects of autoantibody analyses will be discussed. Special attention is paid to aspects that are of practical relevance for the serological diagnosis of autoimmune diseases like autoantibody profiling, identification of autoantibodies recognizing conformational epitopes, or incorporating likelihood ratios within medical practice. Furthermore, we are delighted to host the 7th International Consensus on ANA Pattern (ICAP) Workshop and a special workshop on harmonization of autoantibody detection as pre-congress events.

We would like to express our thanks to all who have supported this symposium either financially or in an advisory capacity and to the active contributors who will present their latest achievements. We expect that our 16th Dresden Symposium on Autoantibodies will stimulate a broad debate how the new achievements from the bench work could help to improve diagnostics and therapy of autoimmune diseases. We hope that you will enjoy the scientific programme and your stay in Dresden.

Karsten Conrad
On behalf of the Co-Chairs

GREEN CONGRESS

Environmental protection and sustainability are important to us. The Dresden Symposium on Autoantibodies is a Green Congress. For short transportation distances, we are only working with local partners: catering, event technology and event equipment, local printing house, local security and cleaning companies. We have also managed to establish a mostly paperless congress organization. Furthermore, during the congress we use small reusable badges without lanyards and reusable long-life conference (cotton) bags. Our caterer only utilizes reusable porcelain tableware, glasses and cutlery, reusable and returnable glass bottle as well as linen tablecloths. The symposium waste is separated. You can help us protect the environment: Use public transport instead of a car! You will get free tickets for city transportation at the congress desk. Local transport information and timetables please find at <https://www.dvb.de/en-gb/>

Society for the Advancement of Immunodiagnosis

In September of 2002, Dr. Karsten Conrad and colleagues founded the “Society for the Advancement of Immunodiagnosis” (Gesellschaft zur Förderung der Immundiagnostik – GFID e.V.). Through its work the society wants to contribute to help patients with immunologically caused diseases receive an early diagnosis and adequate treatment – especially through the publication of specialized literature and the organization of scientific meetings and workshops. Highlights are the biennial Dresden Symposia on Autoantibodies.

To be able to continue our non-profit work in the future, we would highly appreciate your support in searching funding and sponsoring opportunities.
